

What Do I Know about the Health Sites I Use?

Think about a health site that you use. Do you know the following information about the site?

Do I know?	Yes	Not sure	No
1. Who pays for the site?
2. Where the information comes from?
3. How current the information is?
4. How the site chooses to link to other sites?
5. What information about me e site collects, and why?

If you can answer yes to most of these questions, then you are a savvy web seeker. If you don't know some of these answers, you might want to check the site further to determine if you can trust the information found there.
